

Euros: How to recognize them

BANKNOTES Recto Verso 5 Euros = 9,681.35 Liras Classical Art: grey-green colour 10 Euros = 19,362.7 Liras Romanesque Art: red colour 20 Euros = 38,725.4 Liras Gothic Art: blue colour

50 Euro = 96.813,5 Liras

Renaissance Art: orange colour 100 Euro = 193,627 Liras Baroque Art: green colour 200 Euro = 387.254 Liras Cast-iron architecture: yellow-brown colour 500 Euro = 968.135 Liras Twentieth century architecture: purple colour COINS Recto Verso 1 Eurocent = 19.36 Liras Castel del Monte: Apulia residence of Frederick II of Swabia 2 Eurocent = 38.72 Liras The Mole Antonelliana in Turin: designed by Alessandro Antonelli in 1863 5 Eurocent = 96.8 Liras The Coliseum or the Flavian Amphitheatre, whose construction started under emperor Vespasian around 75 A.D. 10 Eurocent = 193.6 Liras "Birth of Venus" (detail) by Sandro Botticelli (1477-78) 20 Eurocent = 387.2 Liras The symbol comes from "UniqueForms of Continuity in Space" by Futurist painter and sculpture Umberto Boccioni 50 Eurocent = 968.1 Liras The Equestrian Statue of Marcus Aurelius set on the Capitoline hill by Pope Paul III in 1538

1 Euro = 1,936.27 Liras The Vitruvian Man by Leonardo da Vinci

2 Euro = 3,872.54 Liras The portrait of Dante Alighieri is taken from Raffaello Sanzio's "Parnaso"

27/04/2011