

Who is willing to host Billi?

Billi is a black German Shepherd who needs a forever home, since he is no longer fit for police work.

He was born in 2005 and worked with the police in Reggio Calabria in crowd control situations.

Billi has a very strong temper and is not suitable for families with kids. For more information about him please read the relevant information sheet.

If you are willing to adopt Billi, please fill in the application for adoption (B1 form) and send it directly to our Canine Unit in Nettuno, following the instructions on our website.

Italian version

14/03/2012